The ladies are nieces of Mrs. J. L. Hyde. The entire party, accompanied by Mrs. Hyde, went down to the coast Monday.

Miss Matilda Rache returned home last Saturday evening, after an absence of several months. Miss Rache has been employed to teach the primary department of the Toledo schools in place of Miss Rebah Gans, who resigned the position. The board of directors have made a wise decision in the choice they have made, as the young lady is well qualified for the position.

Dr. J. D. Wetmore invited THE LEADER force for a trip up the Yaquina river Sunday in his launch Yaquina. The party left Toledo at 1:45 and made the trip in about two hours. There is no place in Lincoln county that has more picturesque scenery than has the territory between Toledo and Elk City, and every tourist who visits this section of the country will feel well repaid by taking the trip. Elk City is an ideal place for a summer resort for those who are in quest of rest from the busy whirl of city life. With the beautiful scenery and excellent fishing, this little burg will one day become popular as a rest for the weary.

Bound for Newport in a box-car, rode a sacker—name was Finch—without grub or liquid rations seeking friends he fain would pinch for a dram or two of Bourbon, or a little Holland gin wherewith to ease his conscience scarified by scarlet sin. Slowly moved the box-car westward 'til it reached Toledo where the festive Finch alighted with an unassuming air. Thought he'd shanghai the sheriff, and the county clerk to boot—and then kidnap the devil of THE LEADER office suite, then too, our representative, of Lincoln and of Polk, was an unsuspecting victim of his diabolic joke. But they gave the razzle dazzle to this "Old Man of the Sea"—he resumed his journey singing—"Mary Ann, how dry I be."

A Word to the Ladies.

While discussing in detail the exhibits for our county fair to be held in Toledo next month, the ladies should not lose sight of the fact that upon them depends largely the success of the venture. While the farmers and ranchmen will fill the space allotted them with the products of their fields and pastures, let their wives, daughters, sisters and sweethearts be in evidence with specimens of their handiwork. Textile fabrics of all kinds, laces, embroidery, patch-work, bead-work, amateur photography, artificial flowers, in fact everything the refined intellect, and deft fingers of women can invent or fashion, should be represented.

Many of these exhibits are intended for an advertisement of the resources of the county, and will be placed upon exhibition in the Oregon Information Bureau at Portland after the fair is over, that the world may know the ladies of Lincoln county are above the average in producing that which is attractive to the eye and pleasing to the palate. In the line of fruits that may be preserved in different forms we have cherries, plums, apples, pears, prunes, and berries of different varieties and in abundance. We want a large exhibit of these. Also remember the poultry. There are several species of fowl in the county—bring them to the show—convince your sister poultry raisers that you have the best of everything—and if proven otherwise, improve the breed you have, or replace them with something better. Don't neglect the product of the dairy; butter and cheese are destined to represent a large per cent of the future revenue of the county. Show the consumer what can be produced in that line. There will be a meeting of the board of directors at the court house Saturday Aug. 15. Meet with them, encourage them by your presence if you have no words to offer in behalf of the fair.

Fred Day arrived home last Saturday evening from Portland. He is looking well and says, with the exception of being a little stiff, he feels about as good as he did before he got shot. He attributes his escape from death to the fact that he has red hair, humorously remarking "that you can't kill a red head anyway." We are glad to see him once more in our midst.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. L. H. Meigs Tuesday afternoon August 18, 1903. In last week's issue of THE LEADER we erroneously published that this meeting was to have been held the 11th. We are to blame from the simple fact that we take no thought of the morrow. Who ever heard of newspaper men looking two weeks into the future? All members cordially invited to attend.
